DID YOU KNOW:

Nigiri is a type of sushi made of thin slices of raw fish over pressed vinegared rice.

Sashimi is thinly sliced raw meat—usually fish, such as salmon or tuna—that is served without rice.

Maki sushi (also called norimaki) is when the rice and fish and/or vegetables are rolled up in a seaweed wrapper called nori. The roll is usually cut into even numbered pieces, depending on the thickness of the roll.
